Our strength lies, not alone in our proving grounds . . .
but in our ideals,
our goals, and their universal appeal to all men who are struggling to breathe free.

Adlai Stevenson

Sometimes we really think . . .

PIKEVILLE COLLEGE

. . . and sometimes we just appear to be thinking.
But all the time we are having fun.

I believe that man will not merely endure; he will prevail.

William Faulkner

It's all in the "college" game.

Many places;
many faces.

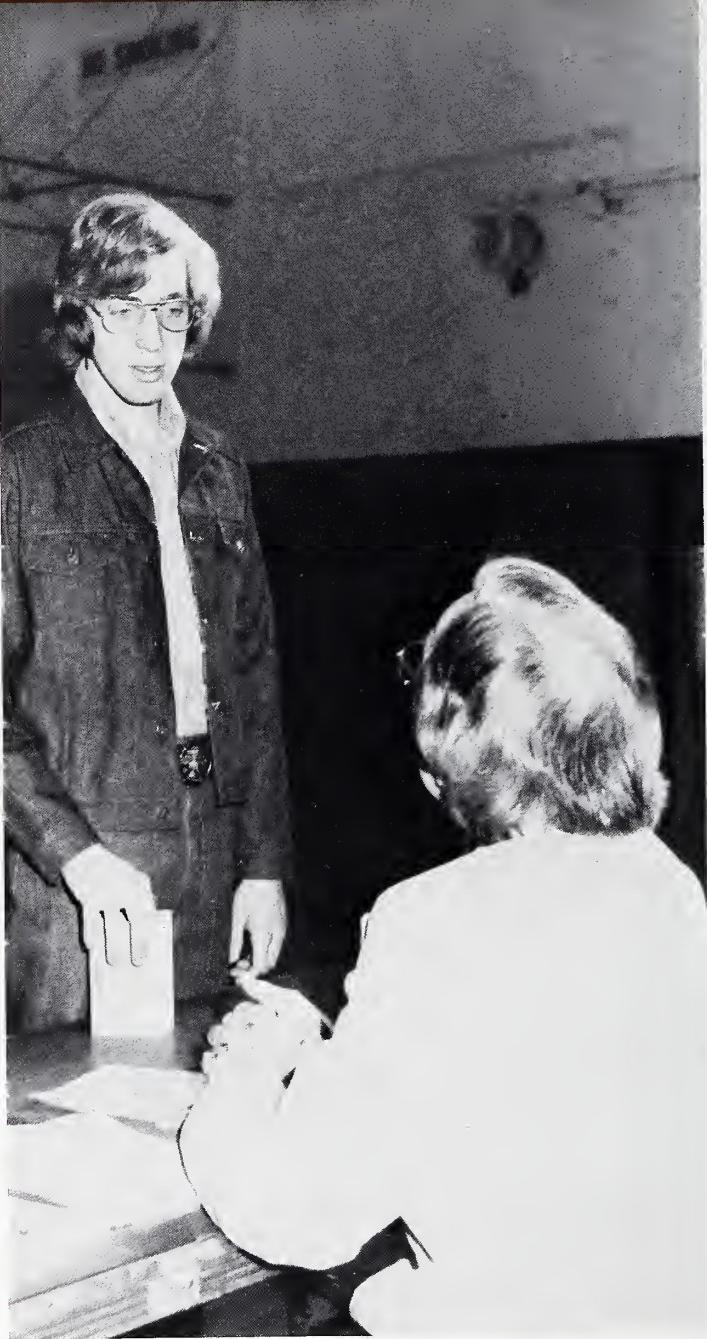

A dark, grainy black and white photograph of a building at night. The building's facade is visible, with some windows illuminated from within. In the foreground, several bare trees stand in a row, their branches reaching upwards. The overall atmosphere is somber and mysterious.

1975: THE YEAR
AT PIKEVILLE COLLEGE

Registration . . .

This could be the start of something big.

Registration means the excitement of many new faces; the frustrations of schedules; and always the never-ending lines.

And they're off!

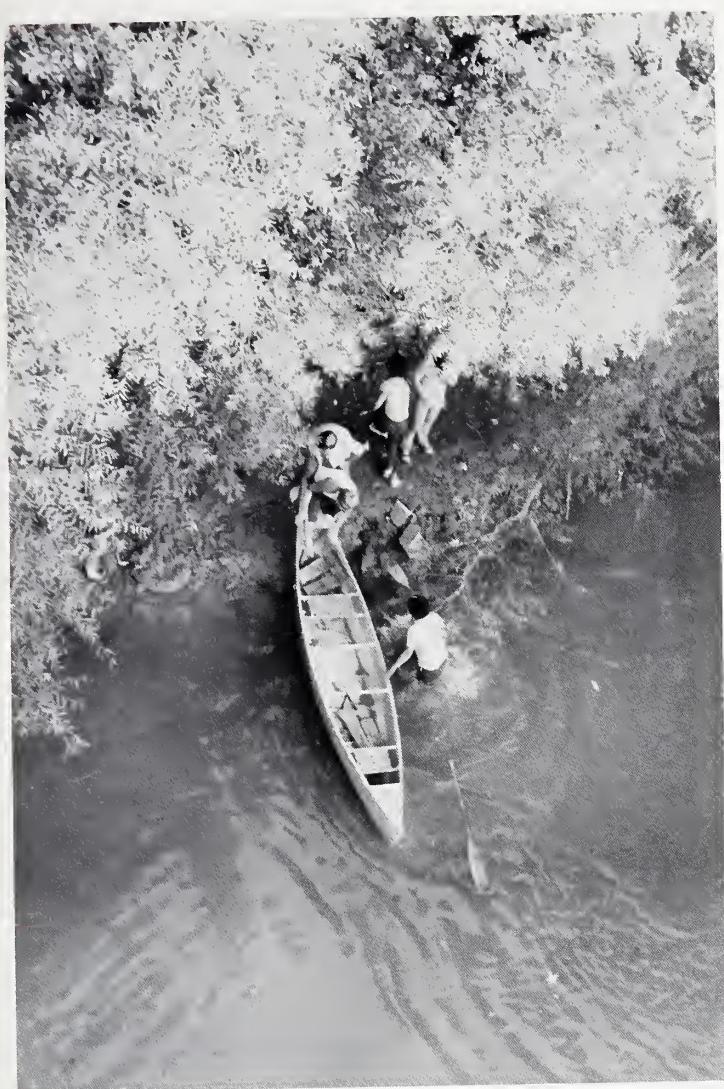

Spectators have almost as much fun as participants.

Something tells me we're not going in the right direction.

Founder's Day 1975

Students use the Big Sandy River as a playground.

POWDER PUFF FOOTBALL:
Another Founders' Day event.

Down . . . Set . . . Hike!

Greg and Phil in a rap session, as usual.

Relief from the books can sometimes be bloody . . .

At this point of the game, girls, we better use strategy.

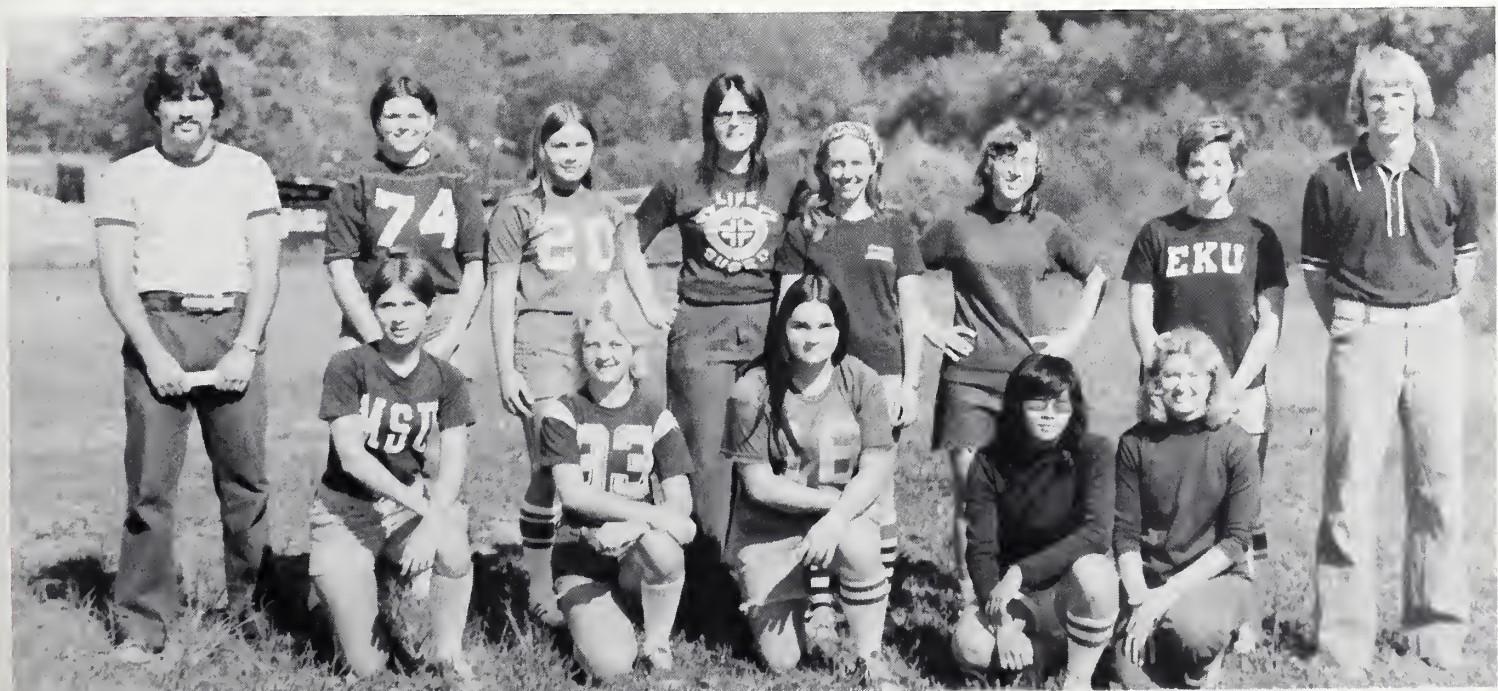

Coaches Ron Moore and Ken Thornsberry give the girls a pep talk.

After the storm.

A silent salute to the dignity of the game.

(Founder's Day pp. 12-15)

What is the past?

Blurred images of memories
But then a single
Maybe trivial
Event of the past
Explodes into reality.

A few moments of beauty to remind us.

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer.

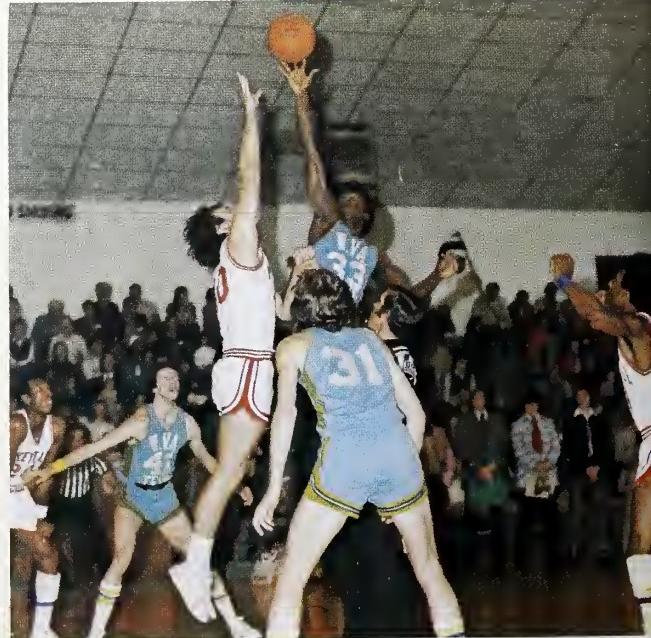

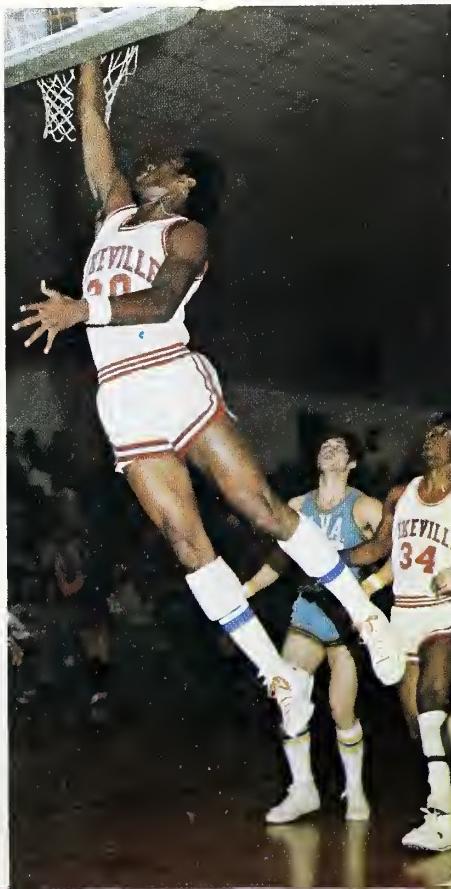

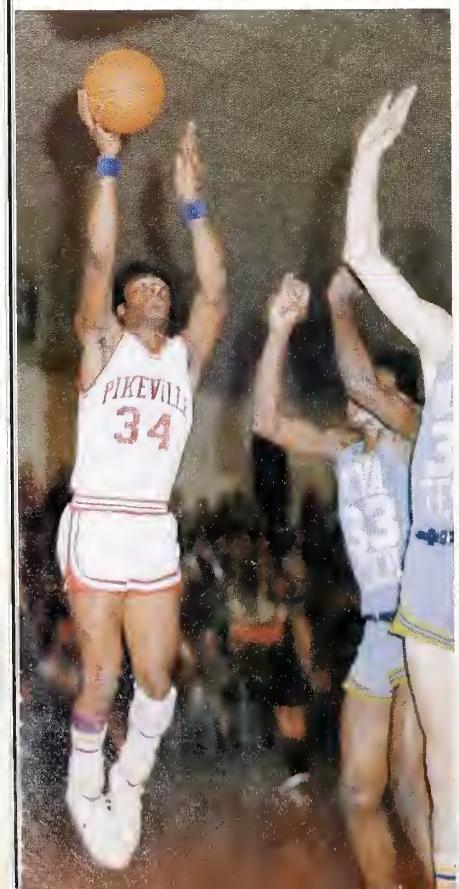

Let him step to the music he hears, however measured and far away.

— Thoreau

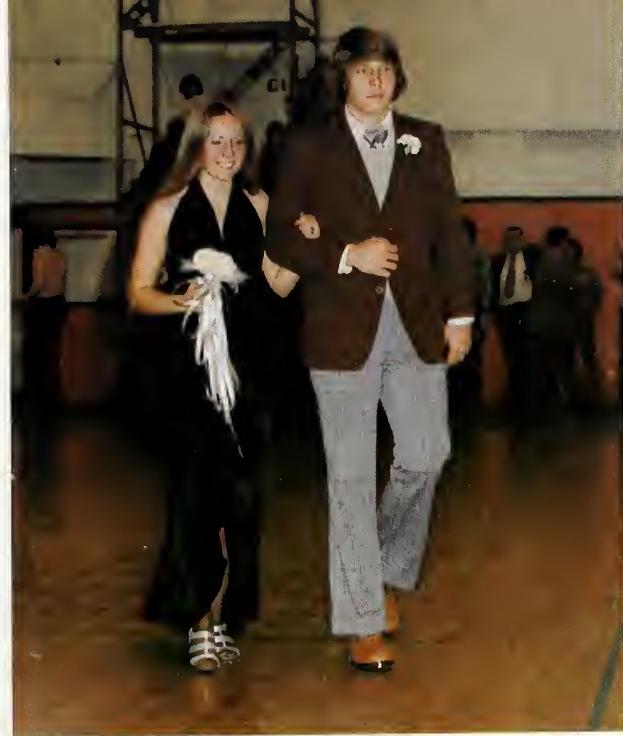

On Saturday, December 14, Pikeville College held its annual Homecoming Parade. The cool morning warmed to a beautiful Kentucky fall day for the event.

The value of both individual and team effort.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Government Association

The SGA was again the largest, and the busiest organization on campus. With the help of advisors, officers, and senate members, the SGA held exclusive activities throughout the year.

SGA Officers

Greg Stone — Senate President
Ricky Bartley — Pres. Pro Tem
Judy Bentley — Secretary
Sheila Stiltner — Treasurer

SENATE MEMBERS: Philip Vinciguerra, advisor; Napadol, Bessie Thornsbury, Louise "Weezor" Foley, Sheila Stiltner, Anne P'Simer, Judy Bentley, William "Tex" Holcomb, Ray Panzone, Jerry Bishop, Greg Stone, Ricky Bartley and Gilbert Rood.

The S.G.A. sponsored every dance held at the college:

Orientation Dance — featuring "Xanthus" from Paris, Ky.

Halloween Dance — featuring "Copperfield" from Richmond, Ky. However some witch got her kicks elsewhere, right Ms. Burney?!

Valentine Sweetheart Dance — featuring "Pegasus" of Huntington, W.Va.

Even the Bears' Den was turned into a dance floor.

But wherever, SGA tried to keep P.C. students happy.

But not just dances . . .

there was also a bluegrass concert . . .

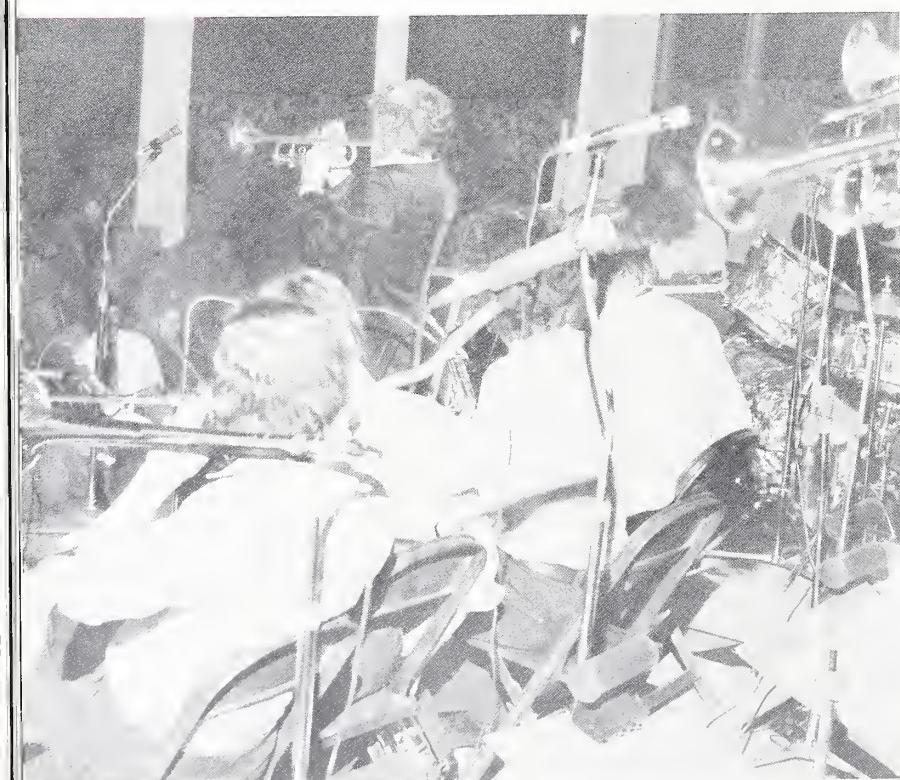

and politics . . .

and classical guitarists.

One of the highlights of all the activities held at Pikeville College was the Maynard Ferguson concert thanks to the Music Department and the Pikeville Concert Association.

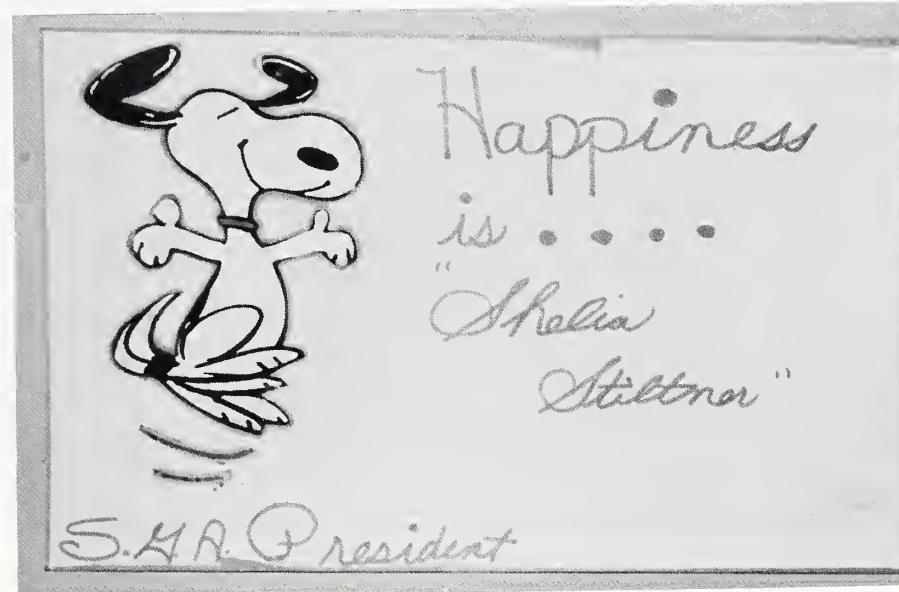

He can really make that trumpet talk!

Ricky Bartley speaks to the Student Body during his campaign for SGA President.

The 1975 Student Government election is exciting as well as competitive. Campaign materials are everywhere . . . and we mean everywhere!

All the candidates have the opportunity to speak at a special convocation.

Spring Formal

Mr. Vinciguerra gives a kiss to the 1975 Spring Queen, Denise Burgey.

Alfreda Thornsbury with escort, Lee Burke.

Louise Foley with escort, Ricky Bartley.

HAPPINESS IS SPRING FORMAL '75.

"New Chancellors"

Vivian Greene and escort, Fred Walker.

All the candidates and their escorts enjoy a dance especially for them.

The spirit of fans.

Aren't you glad we use dial!?

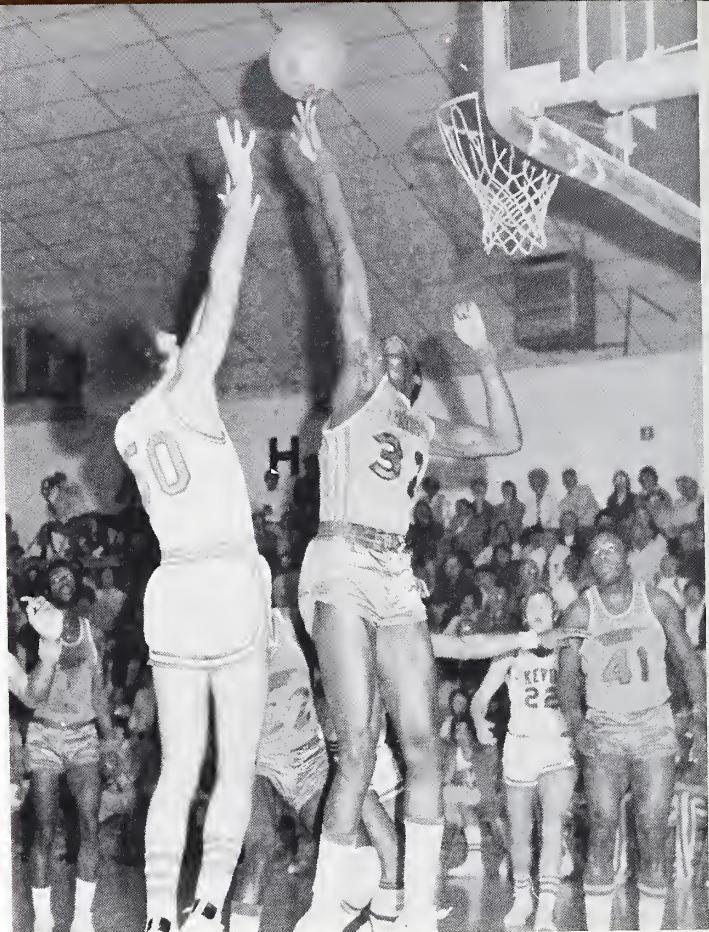

As Sam dunks the ball everyone's mouth opens in awe.

The enthusiastic crowd is the reward for all the hard work the cheerleaders devote for the basketball team.

Who can sit at a time like this?

S-t-r-e-t-c-h.

The faces of the crowd show mixed emotions toward the game.

Cheerleaders jump with joy for a great team!

"There's nothing to it, fellas."

Precision . . . Agility . . . Enthusiasm . . .

The winning, last-second shot by Terry Hawkins at Georgetown to win the conference.

Spectators flock to the court to congratulate the team.

Katherine Ann Reasor
“I can’t believe it; I just can’t believe it!”

Shouts of joy for the No. 1 team.

DR. AND MRS. JACKSON O. HALL
President and First Lady of Pikeville College.

What or why Pikeville College is . . . is irrelevant at this point. What matters now is the method in which we employ the power instilled in us stemming from the knowledge we have gained at this institution. You may ask what is this power? . . . in answer I will say that to me knowledge is one of the most powerful tools in the world. But, alas, it seems that we are about to be jettisoned into a world that has transformed this power into a weapon. It is justifiable to fear that this very thing that once acted as a stimulus for mankind may soon destroy it. Therefore it appears to me that our duty upon entering the world is to turn man's mind back to the true responsibilities of existence.

The world from which we can no longer escape or avoid is a very cold creature. Feelings of brotherhood and love seem to be rapidly hiding themselves in darkness. There is too much work involved in existing for man to really live. It is our duty to redirect man's attention to brotherhood and peace. It is our task to cry out to man — SLOW DOWN AND TAKE TIME TO LIVE BEFORE YOU MISS YOUR CHANCE!

With these ideas in mind the senior class of 1975 willingly accepts the challenge to represent Pikeville College with our best efforts. We must march into society, dedicated to the goal of creating goodwill for all mankind. Ours is a troubled world. A continuation of the past would read only corruption and more discontent. The present must be molded into a more tranquil and conscious period so that we may look hopefully to the future.

P. L. Keene
Pres. 1975 Sr. Class
